Donny Hathaway - A Song for You Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

"A Song for You" is a song written and originally recorded by rock singer and pianist Leon Russell for his first solo album Leon Russell, which was released in 1970 on Shelter Records. A slow, pained plea for forgiveness and understanding from an estranged lover, the tune is one of Russell's best-known compositions. Russell not only sings and plays piano on the recording, but also plays the tenor horn that is accompanying. It has been performed and recorded by over 200 artists, spanning many mus

Russell wrote a song called "Delta Lady" about her that Joe Cocker recorded in 1969. She was again his muse on "A Song For You," which finds him singing about their deep connection when they are alone. It's a very intimate love song that hits hard with a line in the last verse: I love you in a place where there's no space or time

For You by Keith Urban - Song Meanings at Songfacts

-The final verse is "song for you", a words that the singer previously repeats several times (the sound was so poor and bad that it sounded as if the man was singing "it's all for you" instead of "song for you")-It sounded current-It's not the song by Carpenters or Leon Russell. I thought it was the one by a band called The Light the Heat, or another by Tom Goldstein: although both songs are similar to the one I'm searching for, it's not the song I listened. Please, do you have any idea?
